The First Step

Junior Kelly Dudek sits waiting for the final bell to ring.

Every day, students of St. Joe race through the halls on their way to class, push their way down to the cafe, or wait in lines at the drinking fountain. Rarely is there the opportunity to stop and look at the school many of us attend for four years of our lives. However, every once in a while, while walking down an empty hall during a free period, or at night during practice for the play, we are given the chance to stop and actually take notice of the school that brings us one step closer to our future. So next chance you have to take a look around, don't miss good ole St. Joe.

Marilyn Parisi was among the many seniors to graduate early, after the first semester. Kissing her leet goodbye are Beth Bodnar and Kathy Faccenda.

"This is Ann Sullivan ... I won how much?
You're kidding!!!"

John Glaser tries to talk himself into opening his notebook to take notes.

During class, Geno Pinczewski sleeps off a long weekend

During Drama Club meetings, students often act out short skits. Lloyd Ketchum, Bridget Bradley, Kathy Faccenda, Tom Houk, and club moderator Mrs. Syburg simulate driving a car. Could it be that Mrs. Syburg is driving her students crazy?

Rosemary VanBergen is either surprised, or opening wide for the nurse.

Student Life:

To

SUCCESS

One

Step Closer

"Hey, today we have a shortened schedule!!" This favorite statement is a representation of a large part of what makes St. Joe special: student life. For the students at St. Joe High School, the school day is not just tests, work, and battling the hallways. Whether it be assemblies during the day, or activities at night, life is rarely monotonous for those who take an interest in the student life at St. Joe. This year, the activities planned for the student body brought everyone one step closer to the goals set in the past.

An important part of any of the student life at St. Joe are the friendships formed during the years in school. These people will be remembered forever for the times shared, the laughs found. St. Joe activities brought everyone closer together. Friends made during retreats, the plays, and on the athletic teams are never forgotten. Because of them, the tough days were a bit easier and the good days were enjoyed a bit more.

So, student life is more than just a dance or a football game. Student life is the student body, and a part of our future is formed within the four walls of St. Joe: ONE STEP CLOSER TO SUCCESS.

One Step Closer . . .

A Step Closer To Business

For many students at St. Joe, the working day does not end at 3:05 when classes are over. These students await their jobs. Working out of class provides experience in the business world. For some students, however, their job is a means to pay for that special cause (formal dance, class trip, or favorite club activities). At first, handling a job and classes at the same time is difficult, but these students find a way to manage both, since working provides that extra cash and a closer step to the world of business.

While at work at Redwood and Ross, senior Doug Regan returns a sweater to its proper place.

Mike Agostino has little trouble concentrating in class, but one of his classmates seems to be able only to think of the upcoming weekend.

Stepping Out

To many of the students at St. Joe, every day of the school week is merely one step closer to the weekend. At 3:05 on Friday, the students finally put away their books and forgot about school for awhile. On Friday nights, they met at football, basketball, and baseball games to cheer the Indians on. After the games, they celebrated either at pizza restaurants or at parties. In the fall, many Saturdays were spent watching the Irish at Notre Dame football games. Other Saturdays were spent shopping, ice skating, sleeping, or shooting baskets with a friend. Saturday nights were the highlights of the weekends, spent at parties, movies, rock concerts, or simply on dates. And, occasionally, students gathered for casual dances in the gym or formal dances such as the prom. Sunday mornings were spent by most of the St. Joe community at mass. Then, Sunday afternoons were chances for well-earned rest. Students relaxed before it was time to settle down once again and think about school.

Tony Mersits and Lori Badur (left) cheer St. Joe on to yet another victory.

Kelly Evans, Pam Gottlick, Kim Evans, and Laura Gottlick are among the many St. Joe students who celebrate Indian victory with pizza at Godfather's.

Lori Dobrzykowski returns from Communion during mass at Sacred Heart Church.

Run For Fun

A new event at St. Joe this year was the runathon. Proposed by Mr. Rousey as a fund raiser, it took the place of former candy sales and raffles. It was enthusiastically received by the students, and soon everyone was out signing up sponsors; often, one's best friends turned into high-pressure salespeople between classes. Twenty cents a lap did not seem like a lot until one found out that the person one sponsored ran fifty laps!

The runathon itself took place on an overcast autumn day, which was considerably brightened by the outfits worn at the track. People ran, walked, and were carried over the course until they were too exhausted to lift their legs, couldn't earn any more money, or, in some cases, ran out of time!

After the running, though, the real work began—collecting pledges. The salespeople disappeared, and St. Joe acquired its own IRS; students, spurred on by the chance of winning a trip to Florida if they reached their quota of fifteen dollars, begged, borrowed, and occasionally broke their sponsors for money.

The runathon, however, as a fundraiser, social event, and method for giving people stiff legs, was a general success. The goal of fifteen thousand dollars was almost reached, and most people enjoyed doing it.

Mr. Rousey, proposer of the run-for-fun, talks over his schemes with Mrs. Marguerite Cackley.

Mike Agostino gives a victory sign as he successfully finishes his run.

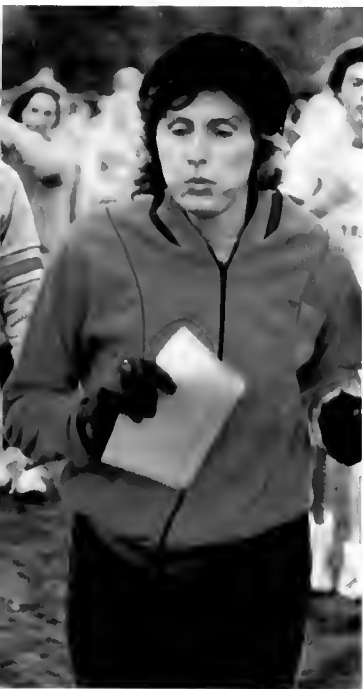

Mary Kennedy and Karen Phelps pace each other around the track.

A variety of tastes in colors and colleges are displayed by Peggy Rigney, Kay Csenar, Amy Oswald, Stacy Kalamaros, and Maura Mast.

Frau Bomer, a St. Joe German teacher, lorges ahead.

Marathon man Kelly Coleman completes one of his 86 laps.

David Petsche and Tom Seitz's cards illustrate the "hole" idea of the runathon.

Connor O'Malley shows his style as he runs around the track.

Stacy Kalamaros apparently has enough energy for three, as she carries Peggy Rigney and Madeline Garvey over the course.

Pete Backs, punch card in hand, looks forward to the completion of a lap.

Thirty-Nine Steps?

This year, the Drama Club's fall play was Thornton Wilder's "Skin of Our Teeth". Mrs. Jane Syburg directed the production, which included three performances on October 24 and 26.

The play included three acts, each showing the struggle of the human race against different opponents. The first act depicted man's struggle against nature in the Ice Age. The second act was the struggle between man and God, showing man's corruption leading to the flood. The third act pictured man against man, using war as a basis for man's struggle.

The play showed the lives of the first family of the human race. George and Maggie Antrobus, father and mother, were played by Dennis Mooney and Mary Pat Klimek, respectively. Their children were Henry, Jay Lewis, and Gladys, Kelly Cassidy. The maid, Lily Sabina, was played by Karen Swartz.

Much work by cast and crew, as well as by Mrs. Syburg, produced one of the finest plays seen at St. Joe.

The Antrobuses, Jay Lewis, Dennis Mooney, Kelly Cassidy, and Mary Pat Klimek, argue over the dilemma of the refugees huddled over the fire.

The Antrobus family: Karen Swartz, Jay Lewis, Dennis Mooney, and Kelly Cassidy.

A pessimistic fortuneteller, Katie Gansley, is the audience of foreboding disaster.

The stage manager, Kathy Fawcett, battles it out with Miss Somerset, Karen Swartz.

Maggie Antrobus, Mary Pat Klinek, gives a reprimanding look to her husband George, Dennis Mooney.

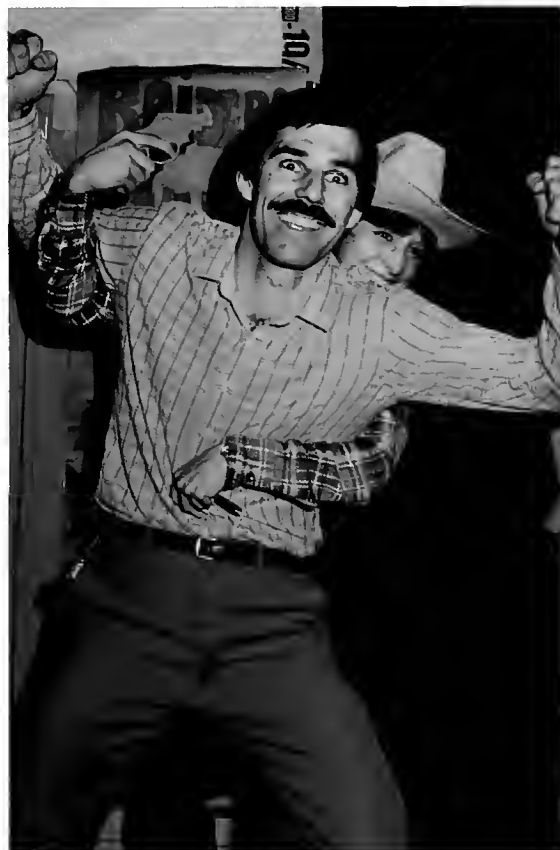

By mid-October the students had grown accustomed to the monotonous grind of each school day. But spirit week at St. Joe offered everyone a chance to have fun and express his pride in our school. Sunday, October 19 marked the start of spirit week with the student fundraiser. The following week every class received an opportunity to express its spirit by decorating its hall. The seniors' western theme won the prize, but all the students set an example of enthusiasm for the football team to imitate in our homecoming game. Before the game, a pep assembly and bonfire were held at the school. Wally Moore, a former coach at St. Joe, was the guest speaker who helped build the mounting anticipation of both the team and the students. The football team gave St. Joe a real reason to be proud by defeating Michigan City Rogers by a score of 42-0. The weekend brought the production of our fall play and the homecoming dance. This year, for the first time, the homecoming dance, with the theme "Love is a Rose", was made semi-formal and was held at Holy Cross Junior College. Another first was the homecoming king. The court had been selected earlier in the week and at the dance Ed Wray and Kim Kaniewski reigned as the king and queen. The dance was greatly enjoyed by those who attended it and served as an appropriate finale for the week of celebration.

A number of unusual transformations took place at St. Joe during spirit week: Ethan Romine became a space cowboy; time halted at high noon in the senior hall; and punk rockers invaded the sophomore class.

Dressed in traditional Western costume, Kim McKernan displays her amazing dexterity with a gun during one of her classes.

Kim Kaniewski arrests an amazed Mr. Shead for failing to spread enough spirit during St. Joe's spirit week.

At the St. Joe bonfire, Mike Agostino displays his prediction for the outcome of the game while Meredith Healy takes a break from her enthusiastic cheering in order to view the activities around her.

At the game, football coach Phil Teegarden details instructions to one of the players.

The School That Time Forgot

"The Land That Time Forgot" became a reality this year at St. Joe. Students sat through seemingly endless classes, not knowing when that fateful bell would ring. Watches became a prize commodity, and "Does anyone have the time?" became the question of the year.

The clock in the resource center went on Tokyo time, and the one in the dean's office "got busted". Strangely enough, the only clock that worked was the one in the main office.

The cause of this anarchy in time was a storm in the summer; lightning struck the school, and ruined all the voltage regulators for the clocks, except the one which rang the bells. When school started, classes were over two hours long, and every clock in the school appeared to be in a different time zone. Electricians, called out to solve the problem, proclaimed the madly ticking clocks a lost cause, and pulled the plug on them. Eventually, the clocks were fixed, and Father Time had his reign restored.

Mary Decelles, a senior at St. Joe, demonstrates her graceful techniques at ballet.

A Touch Of Class . . .

On November 20, our student body was presented with a totally new and refreshing type of assembly. The South Hold Dance Company gave a performance of the famous Nutcracker Suite. The student government sponsored this assembly in order to provide us with entertainment and, above all, culture. For quite a few of us this was our first opportunity to see a live ballet and the majority came away from it very impressed. Mary Decelles, a senior at St. Joe, is a dancer for South Hold and she participated in their presentation. Her performance, along with the entire company's, was considered excellent. Hopefully they will return next year for another inspirational presentation.

cracker Suite.

A romantic scene is acted out through the graceful ballet movements of these two South Hold dancers.

Ode To Our Athletes

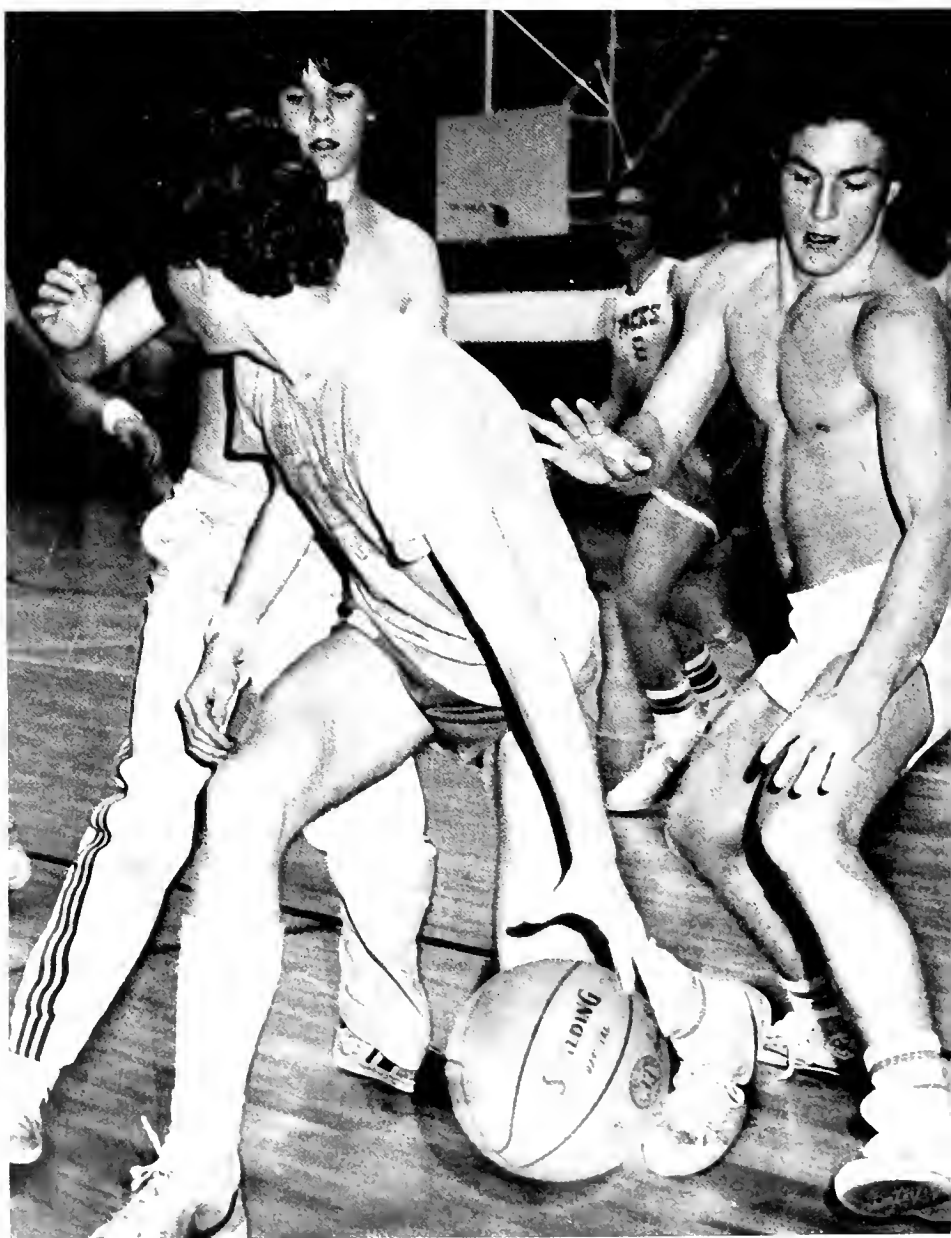

St. Joe's intramural sports program gives every student the opportunity to play an organized team sport. Whether a player is good or bad does not really matter. The main objective is for all to enjoy themselves, and this year they had a blast. Senior Tom Bauters was the director and made sure all had fun.

In flag football, No Nukes won the playoffs. The winners in bowling was the Brass Blast. In volleyball, the Spikers came out on top. The champs for basketball was Ragtag, but they ended their season with a loss to the faculty. The Nads ended up as winners in softball. Whether a member of the champs or not, all had fun.

Greg Wilken and Tom Bauters of Troff and Brew work defense against George Carlin.

Pete Rauner sports a mean grin in an effort to psyche out the pitcher.

Freshman Tony Evans is ready for a strike as he anticipates that "300 game".

Football Champs "NO NUKES": Row 1-Megan Ahearn, Kathy Faccenda, Beth Bodnar, Ann Sullivan, Sue Mullen. Row 2-Dave Kon-

key, Jim Pfeil, Ken McGlinn, Jim Weinberg, Ethan Romine.

Referee (??) Ed Wray has no doubt that it is indeed a valid touchdown.

Basketball Homecoming '81

1981 Homecoming court: Beth McInerny, Rob Chrobot, Jackie Taghon, Terry Bland, Stacy Kalamaros, Mike Crovello, Madeline Garvey, Ed Fredlake, Candy Lloyd, Craig Scope.

The St. Joe 1981 Homecoming game was held on January 30 against the Culver Military academy. The St. Joe team displayed their fine ability by defeating Culver in an exciting game. Following tradition, the halftime festivities produced the 1981 Homecoming queen. However, the St. Joe student body also elected a king this year. Sharing the honors of Homecoming couple were Stacy Kalamaros and Rob Chrobot. Also on the court were: Mike Crovello, Beth McInerny, Candy Lloyd, Craig Scope, Jackie Taghon, Terry Bland, Ed Fredlake, and Madeline Garvey. All fans of the Indians enjoyed a trouncing of the Culver team and agreed that St. Joe was deserving of their Homecoming victory. The spirit of the Indian team showed through in 1981.

Star Struck

The Midwinter semi-formal dance for the year 1981 took place on Saturday, January 31. The theme of the dance was "Starry, Starry Night", a song sung by Don McLean. The theme was the basis for the decorations of St. Hedwig's Hall, where the semi-formal was held. The decorations included stars hung from the ceiling. The tables were decorated with white candles and pink and blue carnations. The dance was sponsored by the sophomore class and some fifty couples attended the evening's festivities. The music to which the couples danced was provided by the Goodtime Company. Despite the seemingly long winter, all the couples who attended the dance agreed that even January seemed shorter thanks to the Midwinter.

Dean Bowman and his wife show that dancing doesn't end in high school.

Mick Tondreau, Colleen Hull, Ellie Shook, and Mike Milani show by their expressions that they're enjoying themselves.

A suave Jay Lewis displays his disco dancing technique to Meg Hill.

Part of the enjoyment of the night was the silliness, as Kay Ciesat and date demonstrate.

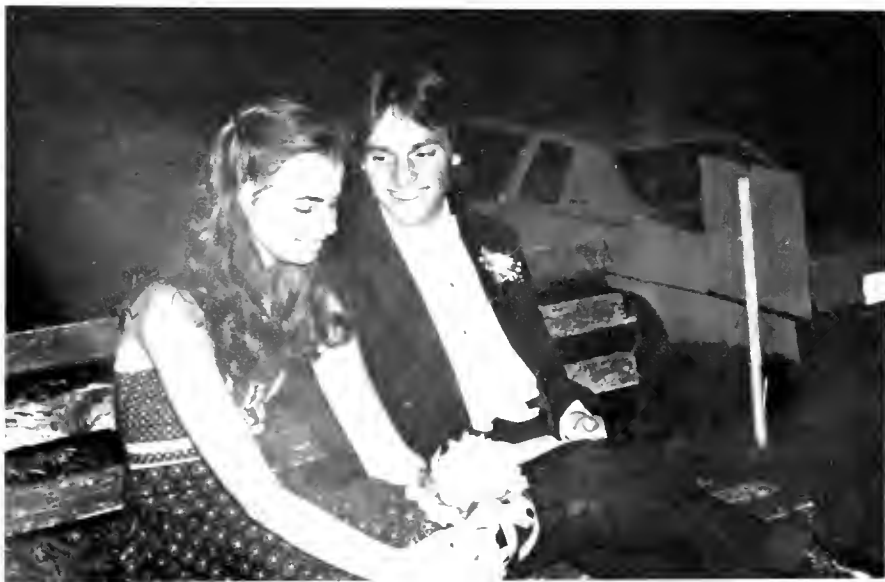

Tricia Kennelly and Dave Lazel join a group to kick to amuse Julie Stephenson and Gene Paterson.

Jim Pfeil, Bernie Rogalski, and Lon Dobbs demonstrate the meaning of three on a date.

Tom Nifong and his date, Chris Booker, enjoy a spin.

Kay Csenar and Michael Butler jam on the dance floor. Senior Sheryl Matthys seems as though she wants to introduce her date to the crowd. A group of students seem to be enjoying themselves as they give their feet a break from dancing.

Peggy Foley and Mike Smigelski take advantage of a slow dance. Kim Bauer and Mike Hill relax away from the music and the crowd

Romance And Memories

St. Joe's 1981 Junior/Senior Prom provided a night of romance and memories for some 130 couples that attended. The Erskin Country Club was the location that helped to set the romantic atmosphere that added to the theme of "Yesterday", a song title chosen by the classes for the theme. The theme was delicately carried out through the decor, which included mauve colored centerpieces made by the prom committee that were accented with a darker tablecloth. The overall atmosphere was that of an old fashioned ballroom, and pictures were taken in an antique sitting room (also created by the committee). The band "Now and Then" provided the music, enjoyed by all. May 8, 1981, and "Yesterday" was a perfect end to the year.

Julie Ladewski relaxes on the lap of her date, Kevin Zwickel. Apparently enjoying himself to an extreme, senior Roland Thomas displays his "Fred Astaireness" to a surrounding crowd--from on top of a table!!

Scenes From "Anything Goes"

"Honorable Step"

Honors Night '81 gave the principal, Mr. Rousey, a chance to congratulate the great number of students who received awards. Mr. Rousey, in his first year at St. Joe, was visibly impressed with the achievements of the students. Mary Pat Klimek, in the salutorian address, further praised the effort and accomplishments of the award winners. A special presentation was given to Brother Damien for his years of service at St. Joe. Honors Night '81 was truly a night for the recognition of many winners.

The seniors gather outside of Sacred Heart before proceeding into the church.

"Baccalaureate '81"

Baccalaureate mass was held on May 21, 1981, in the Sacred Heart Church on the University of Notre Dame campus. Seniors lingered outside of the church lining up, discussing graduation, and taking pictures in their newly acquired gowns. During the mass, the chorus provided music, led by Mrs. Thomas Hampson. The homily was given by Reverend Chrobot. He spoke to the seniors about their religion and God in their futures. All agreed the mass was very special. With the realization that this was their final mass together, many seniors took a second glance around at their classmates and remembered the past.

Reverend Chrobot emphasizes the importance of God in the seniors' futures.

"The Final Step"

The first in line of seniors await their turn to receive diplomas.

On May 22, 1981, at 7:15 p.m., seniors gathered one last time for their much anticipated graduation. The ceremony was held in the Athletic and Convocation Center on the Notre Dame campus. While lining up to enter the arena, excitement was seen on every senior's face. Once inside, seniors sat rather calmly listening to Senator Richard Lugar speak of the future. Tom Berry, in his valedictory address, echoed his class as he spoke of past and future. The ceremony ended with a show of enthusiasm from all those involved. Everyone quickly filed out of the arena to join their friends who had already begun the celebration in the corridor. There were screams, of joy, excitement, and relief, accompanied by hugs, kisses, and flowers, as congratulations were administered to every new graduate. The Class of '81 proved itself once again to be very special indeed.

Doug Regan is congratulated as Mr. Rousey hands him his diploma.

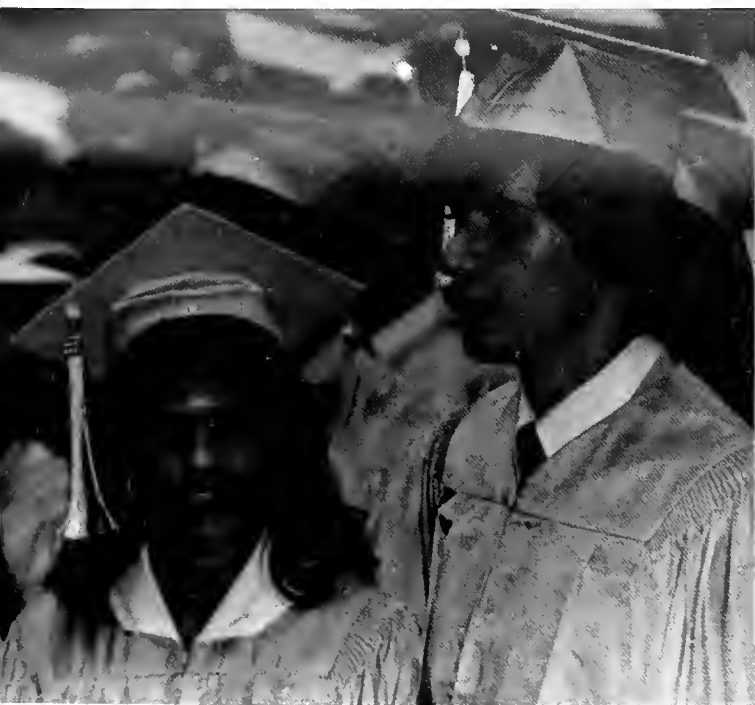

Eager anticipation is seen on Tonya Johnson's face as she observes the graduation ceremony.

"The End At Last"

The last day of school for 1981's seniors came on May 15. After four long years of study and suffering, the seniors were free. The last bell rang, soon followed by the fire alarm set off by a wayward senior. The ensuing madness continued in the halls until the dean herded everyone out to the parking lot where 120 of the students headed for the buses bound for Kings Island. Five hours later, the seniors arrived at the park for Grad Nite, with a record crowd of 23,000 students. Though the lines for the infamous roller coaster "The Beast" included 2 hour standstills, everyone agreed the night was well worth the wait. At 2:30 a.m., the park closed and everyone clammered back to the buses for a "restful" ride home that included sleeping on the floor of the bus. The trip ended back in the parking lot which had miraculously survived the last day in the reign of the 1981 senior class.

In Kokomo, the buses stopped at McDonalds where everyone replenished their food supply. Tim Pingel preferred to enjoy his lunch with Ronald on the bus.

Step On Over

St. Joe's annual corn roast again kicked off the school year for the two hundred people who came for the delicious corn, snow cones, and other assorted food. The dance afterwards turned out to be just as big a success as the roast. Parkovash provided the fantastic music for all to dance to and unwind. This year the roast was sponsored by the senior class, with the help of Brother Chris, faculty moderator, and Doug Regan. The corn roast was enjoyed by all the students and their families who attended.

SPORTS:

ONE

TO

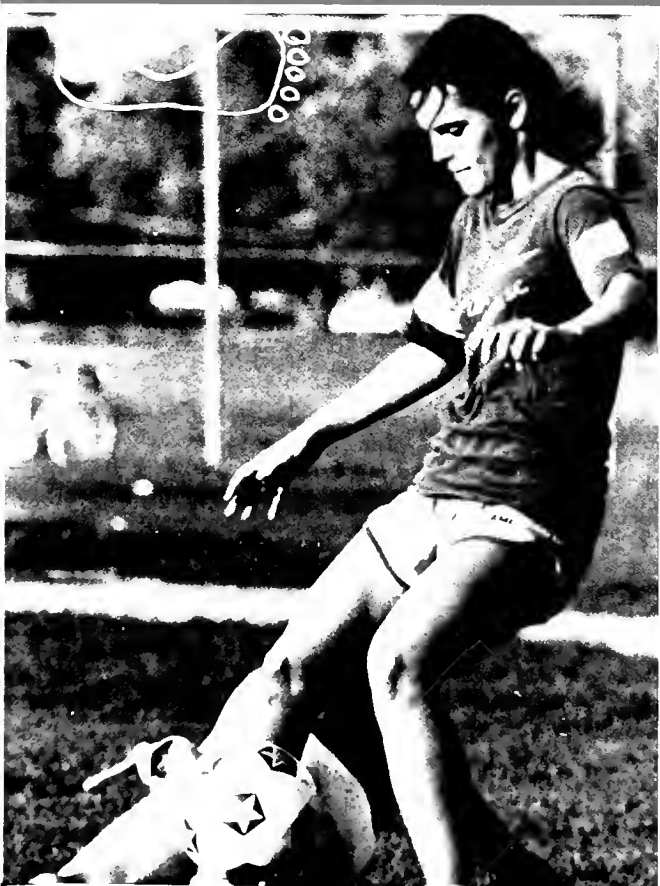

VICTORY

St. Joe athletes, dedicated to their school until the very end, proud to be a part of the athletic program at St. Joe. Sound like a recruiting commercial? Maybe, but any of the fifty-three percent of the students at St. Joseph's High School who have participated in athletics, whether varsity or intramural, know this to be true. Athletics are important to St. Joe, and the success of various teams has proven this to be the case.

St. Joe students spend numerous hours before and after school in practice, working to make their team the best it can be. This year, St. Joe has moved closer to that goal than ever before. Grueling practices at dawn, conditioning after school, and late night games fill the schedules of the athletes that compose St. Joe's teams. The work paid off this year, as the athletes went on to attain their goals.

The long road to victory is more than just hard work and physical labor, however. Dedication, spirit, and concern are all factors of a successful team. The athletes of St. Joe contributed these and their talents towards their teams to make them the best seen at St. Joe yet. Because of hard work and effort, St. Joe sports are ONE STEP CLOSER TO VICTORY...

10-0 But Nowhere To Go

At the end of the 1980 season, the St. Joseph's football squad is the proud owner of the state's longest winning streak of 21 games in a row, with a second consecutive 10-0 team.

Impressive wins were recorded throughout the season, highlighted by a 19-14 win over arch-rival Marian. During the game, Rob Chrobot caught seven passes, earning him the South Bend Tribune's Athlete of the Week Award.

Steve Kubsch led the defense to five shutouts, which earned him All-State recognition. Equally impressive were All-State Gary Kulwicki's efforts in directing the offense to almost 300 points in the season.

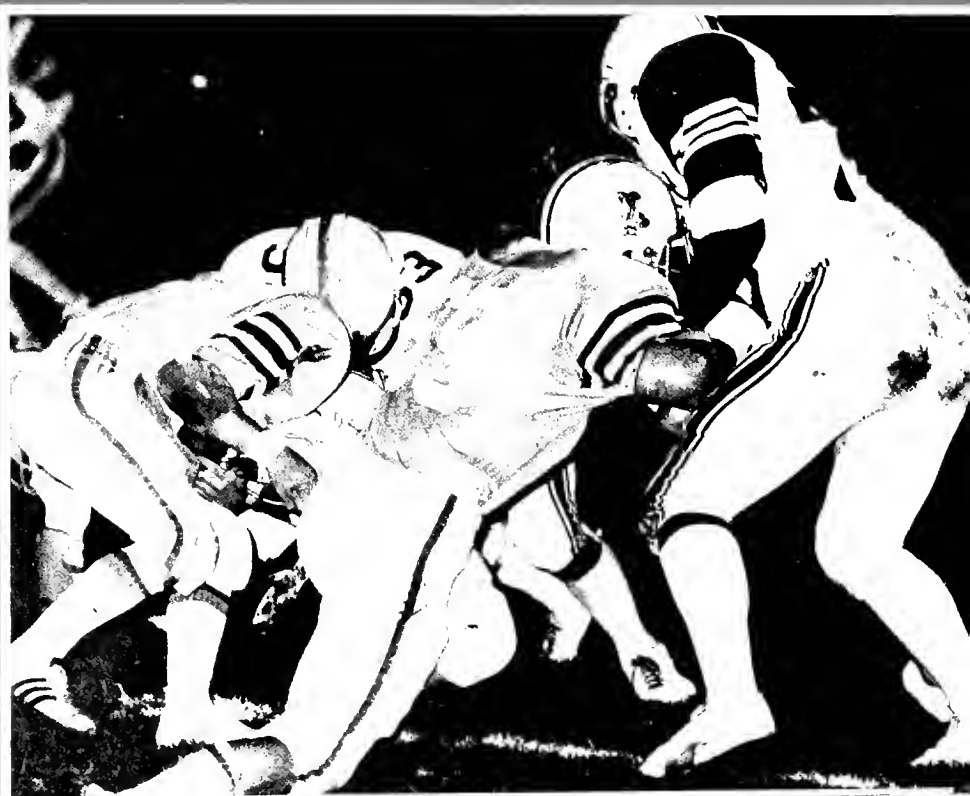

The offensive linemen, who prefer to be called the "White Dogs," were an instrumental part in rolling up victories, led by seniors Kevin Kelly and Tom Baulers. Seniors Craig Scope, Mike Agostino, Kevin McCray, and Chris Rose anchored down the impenetrable defensive line.

At the football banquet, several athletes were honored as outstanding players of the year. These were Tom Baulers as offensive lineman, Gary Kulwicki as offensive back, Craig Scope as defensive lineman, Pete Rauner as defensive back, Rob Chrobot as receiver, and Steve Kubsch, linebacker. Mike Agostino received the Kiwanis Award, and was named co-captain with Steve Kubsch.

Despite the loss of an excellent senior team, enough lettermen will be returning to provide the nucleus for another 10-0 team.

Indians Our Champions

Rete Kaunier, #41, attempts to block a player as there aid in a tackle.

The 1980 football season at St. Joseph's High School will not soon be forgotten. At the end of the regular season, the Indians were 21-0, just having finished an undefeated season, ending the season ranked third and possessing the longest winning streak in the state. It looked as though this would be the most successful year in St. Joe football history. There was one flaw, however. Regardless of the accomplishments made by Coach Teegarden's 1980 team, the Indians were denied a spot in the IHSAA playoff tournament for the state championship. The decision to not allow St. Joe in the playoffs was a result of a system of playoff points, St. Joe falling short of enough points to assure them a spot because of the opponents the Indians beat throughout the season. The decision was petitioned by St. Joe on behalf of the seniors, and eventually taken to court. On Thursday, October 30, 1980, over 200 concerned students and parents attended the hearing at the South Bend city courthouse. The hearing went on for over three hours, in which time Steve Kubech, senior captain of the squad, testified on behalf of his teammates, pleading injustice by the IHSAA. His words were to no avail, however, for when the final outcome of the trial was announced, it pertained to a victory for the IHSAA and in turn, a very sad defeat for the Indians. Judge John Montgomery, in giving out his decision, was sympathetic to the boys' situation. Just when things were looking up for the Indians, he commented, "The rule that caught these people in its clutches is abominable. I don't know how they can defend themselves from the situation." He also added, "I would like to issue this injunction, and I do hope the IHSAA will rectify this situation in the future." So, after a well fought battle, the Indians nevertheless came home losers. They were unbeatable on the football field, but when it came to the important issue, the championship, they lost even before they could step onto the field. We all will remember what happened this year, even after talk has died down. There's nothing we can do to ease the pain, but in our book, the Indians are number one, they are indeed champions, in the truest sense of the word.

Congratulations, Indians, we're all behind you!!!

12	Laporte	6
26	Marian	6
21	Goshen	0
22	Northwood	0
22	Jimtown	7
34	Concord	6

The B-team, just like the varsity, ended their season with a perfect record 8-0. Their most outstanding victory was over arch-enemy Marian with a score of 26-6. Some outstanding players who led the B-team were sophomore Scott Toman, who threw 16 touchdown passes; Kevin Kusneirek and Tommy Klimeck also contributed considerable support. The co-captains were Rich Tull and Scott Toman. Coach Teegarden believes that next year should be very promising. On the varsity end, they have 15 returning letterman; as for the B-team, believe it or not, they'll be just as terrific, if not more so!

Under the supervision of Father Bly and co-captains Craig Barret and Frank Springer, the Frosh football team had a victorious season. They finished with a 6-2 record, a continuation of last year. Their biggest wins were over Adams and city rival Jackson. However, they lost the championship game to Grissom 27-18 in a hard fought battle. This was the second consecutive time St. Joe was defeated by Grissom for the city championship. The outlook for next year's season, according to Father Bly, is that if some of the players work hard, they might start next year on varsity.

Dink City Is Triumphant

This year's varsity volleyball team had a very successful season. With the record 16-4, the team soared to beat rivals like Marian, Mishawaka, and Adams. The Adams Eagles suffered defeat for the first time in years. The team, led by senior co-captains Cathy Houk and Stacey Kalamaros, proved to be tough all around, being able to squeeze out of tight situations with victories. Honored with Athlete of the Week were seniors Cathy Houk and Stacey Kalamaros and junior Mary Kay O'Connell. The season ended abruptly with a loss to the LaSalle Lions, an unexpected defeat. The team lost three seniors, and will be back strong next year.

Both the B-team and the freshman girls' volleyball teams ended the season with a very successful record. The B-team season was highlighted by their win over Marian, achieving victory after losing to them last year. Captains Tish O'Connell and Becky DeLeu portrayed fine leadership in helping the team finish with a 13-3 record. The team, led by junior Chris Witucki and freshman Margi Kaminski, entered the tourney but lost a hard fought battle to a tough Adams team.

The freshmen, under the leadership of captains Tracey Niezgodski and Susie Karwowski, finished the season with a 16-2 record. The outstanding game of the season was a win over Adams. The team remained unbeaten in their tourney before losing a tough battle in the final round to a good Marian team.

Smashing Season

August marked the start of the tennis season for both the hardworking players and their dedicated new coach, Mr. Ghyselink. Their relentless practices paid off as they managed to improve last year's record, finishing with a 7-7 season. The team drew Riley in the sectionals and received good fan support during the match. Junior Mike Abramowski, who was the recipient of the Most Valuable Player award, held the number one singles spot. Playing the number two and three singles positions were sophomores Adam Taylor and Greg Petersen respectively, while Michael Hill and Michael Butler guarded the number one doubles spot. Number two doubles was played by Terry Jackson and John Reynolds, though sophomores Steve Crowe and John Wilken also had the opportunity to play on the varsity. The B-team consisted of Mark Thorton, Bruce McCourt, John O'Brien, Brian Grant, Tom Seitz, and Paul Szrom. As only two of the varsity players, co-captains Mike Hill and Terry Jackson, will be graduating, the team is assured of a winning 1981 season.

Step Quickly

For cross country runners, the work began the first week of August. They ran together every day, in addition to individually training. All of this work was to prepare for running the tracks of just over three miles throughout the season.

Although the 1980 cross country team enjoyed few victories, the season was highlighted by the defeat of Jimtown and Howe Military Academy despite rain, sleet, and cold. Unfortunately, the team's prospects were dimmed by the illness of their number one runner, George Carlin. The team members, under the leadership of co-captains Tom Berry and Fran Ashton, worked with coach Tom Laskowski throughout the season to build their endurance.

One outstanding runner was senior Fran Ashton, who placed well above a number of male runners in competition. The main bright spots on the roster, however, were sophomores Johnny Raven and Todd "Golden Boy" Wilson. Since both of these talented runners will return next year, along with most of the team, expectations for 1981 are high.

City Champs

The 1990 Soccer club showed the meaning of St. Joe pride by going undefeated to win the city championship. Co-captains John Costello and Joe Bellina led the team in a season highlighted by victories over Marian and Frey which moved them into the play-offs. There, they defeated Adams in double overtime to capture the trophy in the MSA-sponsored city tournament. Coach Bruce Marshall's inspiration and leadership spurred the team to success. The season was also highlighted by the excel-goaltending of Vic O'Block and by freshman sensation Bruce "Tiger" McCourt, who was the team's top scorer.

Shoot The Hoop

This year the Indians, with the help of Coach Rick Baumgartner, finished their season with an 11-9 record.

Captain Jim Roederer lead returning players Paul Stachowitz, Mario Zappia, Mike Smigelski and Charlie Harper to great victories over Washington, Marian, and Riley. The ultimate victory for the year was the defeat of Adams during regular season. The climax of this game came when Paul Stachowitz was injured. The crowd waited silently; cheers resounded when it was learned that he would be all right. The trauma served to fire the team up and they went on to beat the Eagles 63-52.

The Indians ended their season in a close game; 49-48 against Adams in the sectionals.

The B-team this year had a fantastic season with sixteen wins and only three losses. The squad, with an all-around group of great players, cruised to victory over long-time St. Joe rival Adams, beating them 54-46. Other fantastic wins were over Marian, 40-27, and Culver Military Academy, 68-34. Many of these fine players will be moving up next year to help the varsity enjoy another good season.

The freshmen also had a great season this year. Coached by Steve Austin, who also coached the B-team, they sailed to many victories and proved once again that St. Joe is powerful on the courts. Most of the players will move up to B-team and will add to the depth and skill of the squad. St. Joe can look forward to a great season next year with many returning players.

Blow 'Em Away

Head coach Larry Shead and his assistant Miss Diane Fox lead this year's varsity girls' basketball team to a much improved 19-3 record. The co-captains were Rosalyn Christianson and Mary Kennedy. Among the thrilling victories was the home game finale in which the girls wiped out the visitors of John Glenn. They also defeated city rival Adams three times this season, something not easily done! The girls won all three of their Holiday Tournament games which included: Washington, Adams, and Clay. They later went on to the sectionals, and ironically met these exact three teams again. They defeated all but Clay. The Colonials won on a prayer shot at the buzzer. During the last five minutes of the last practice of the season, senior Indian head Maureen Mulvihill broke her ankle. Even though she was not able to play, she was quite an inspiration to her team as she cheered them on to the sectionals. Next year's outlook is very optimistic. Although seniors Rosalyn Christianson, Maureen Mulvihill, Stacy Kalamaros, and Mary Kennedy who started this basketball team three years ago as freshmen will be leaving, the Indianettes have a deep bench which will return next season with a record of 5-1, while the freshmen ended theirs 0-10.

Practice Pays Off

Throughout the winter, beginning practice in November and concluding the season in March, dedicated hockey players worked to refine their talents. Though complaints could be heard about the early morning workouts, the effort certainly paid off. With a league record of 18-1-1, the St. Joe Hockey team was named league champion. Playoff action placed the Indians in the number two spot in the city and in fourth place through the entire state. The overall season record was 27-11-2. Coaches Dave Barnet, Bob Cunningham, Mike Klosinski, and Jamie Weier instructed and encouraged the players with the help of captain Andy Rhodes and alternate captains Ethan Romine and Jay Lewis. The team has four graduating seniors: Gene Pinczewski, Doug Cunningham, Ethan Romine, and Terry Bland, the latter two being recognized as state all-stars. With many successful seasons behind them, the players look forward to 1981-82 play.

Pin To Win

The 1980-1981 wrestling team titled themselves "The Piranhas." They rightfully lived up to their billing as they won six of their last eight meets to finish with an 8-11 record. Members of the team who placed into regional competition were: Mike Agostino, senior; John Glon and Paul Brady, juniors; and Loris Zappia and Kevin Kazmierczak, freshmen. Those wrestlers who excelled during the season were honored with various awards. Among those honored were: Mike Agostino, M.V.P. and High Point Awards; Mark Benhart, Most Improved Award; and Kevin Kazmierczak Mental Attitude Award.

Pete Agostino, a Notre Dame student who lettered for St. Joe several years ago, returned to help coach Don Fields with the team. Under their guidance, the Piranhas have taken great strides this year. In addition, several outstanding lettermen will be returning next year, providing excellent chance for another exciting season.

John Mersits, Scott Kopinski, and the St. Joe baseball team.

Keeping in line with past St. Joe baseball teams, head Coach Craig O'Neill's didn't disappoint anyone with a 19-4 record. The team's phenomenal effort earned them a birth in the Sectional finals against LaSalle, however the Indians came up short as they were defeated 6-0. It was a tough ending for the squad, but the accomplishments were numerous, including a 14 game winning streak that thrusts the team to a lofty A.P. ranking of 10th in state.

The team utilized effective pitching by Scott Kopinski, Mike Carmola, Mike Gibbons and Kelly Coleman to keep the team E.R.A. at a 2.13 mark. The offensive power was provided by Ken McGlinn whose 4.92 batting average won him the Best Batting Average and M.V.P. awards. Ed Fredlake's desire earned him the Indian Hustler award, and Tony Mersits was the recipient of the Kiawanis award. Craig Scope and Jim Weinberg were honored as team co-captains.

Hard Work Shows

The 1981 St. Joe Junior Varsity Baseball team learned how to enjoy hard work if nothing else. With the help of Coach Mr. Steve Austin, they made it through the grueling practices, whether it be rain or shine. Their practice proved profitable, however, as the skills of the team were noticeably improved by the end of the season. By the looks of the talent on the field, 1982 for the Indians should prove to be interesting.

First Year Success

The 1981 softball team had a lot to cheer about. With the departure of former coach Mary Welsheimer, the girls were faced with a leadership dilemma, but they soon found a solution. It came by the name of Miss Diane Fox, a spirited "kid at heart" teacher, who stepped right in and continued where Mrs. Welsheimer left off.

The team was considered more a group of friends with a common interest rather than select individuals put together for one purpose — playing softball. Leading the team for the year were seniors Mary Ewing, Anna Marie Grecco, and Sandy Harper. Both their playing skills and their leadership abilities aided in making the team what it was: A spirited, winning team. Talent was spread out, however, as there were an astounding 6 freshmen, including ace pitcher Mary Rhoutsong.

Highlights of the 1981 season included defeating Adams and reaching the city tournament. With only 3 seniors, the talent should prevail again next year.

Running Hard

St. Joseph's 1980-1981 track team was highly competitive compared to recent teams here. Coach Tom Laskowski shaped the team into a surprisingly tough unit. The only ingredient lacking was enough runners. A large amount of people are needed in order for a track team to be successful. This team was never out run, only outnumbered.

Among the sectional qualifiers were Todd Wilson in the 400 meter relay and Rich Was, Kevin Kusnierek, Chip Zankus and Gary Jerzak in the 400 relay. Rich Was also qualified in the 100 meter dash, and Matt Marz in the high jump.

"Girls Tennis Maintains Excellence"

Despite many rain delays and bad weather conditions, the 1980-81 girls' tennis team earned a 13-2 record, with losses to Culver and Adams. Missy Crull played the number one singles position and reached the sectional finals. Terri Buszkiewicz reached the fourth round of the sectionals and was the number two player. St. Joe placed third out of 18 teams in the sectionals.

The B-team also fared well, with a 13-1 record, its only season loss to Adams. St. Joe hosted a B-team tourney with Adams, Bremen, and Elkhart Central and tied for first with Adams.

With only three seniors graduating, the tennis team promises the return of strong and mature players that are sure to lead the way to a successful future.

Cheerleaders Spark

The 1980-1981 cheerleading squads contributed a lot to sports at St. Joe. The Varsity and B-Team squads practiced throughout the summer to prepare for the football season, which began in August. This year the varsity squad traveled to all of the away football games, cheering the team on to a perfect 10-0 season, with one highlight being the 5 hour trip to Fenton, Michigan. In the fall, the freshman squad was chosen from the large freshman class. After the conclusion of the successful football season, the cheerleaders prepared for the basketball season. Varsity and B-Team added mascots Sarah Bradley and Stephanie Cramer. Although cheerleading demands a lot of time and work from the girls and their moderator, Mrs. Sally Kindig, most of those involved agree that the opportunity to be a part of the St. Joe spirit is well worth it.

This year, the cheerleaders and spirit club worked with Spirit Director Dan Murphy on the pep rallies. These featured, in addition to cheers and skits, presentations by various coaches and teams. One new idea introduced this year, which was quite successful, was an outdoor pep rally and bonfire for the football homecoming game. Hopefully the bonfire and outdoor rally will become a tradition at St. Joe.

KNOWLEDGE

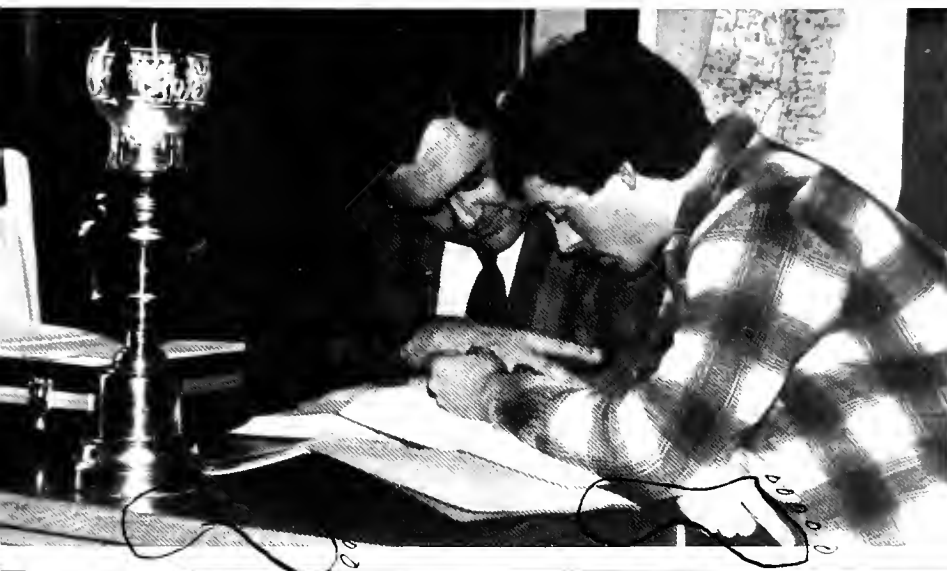

When summing up what St. Joe is all about, the academic aspect of the community certainly cannot be overlooked. For in essence, what is St. Joe? In reality, St. Joe High School is a community of people; people all having the same common goal of a first rate education. People and education—they make up the structure that is indeed St. Joe.

Among the various departments, it would be a difficult task to not be able to find at least one class that interests each person. Whether it be mathematics, art, or even in construction, one's taste in education can be provided for at St. Joe through its extensive curriculum.

But, who is St. Joe? The answer is simple, yet very complex. St. Joe is each and every one of you. It couldn't be St. Joe without you, for you individually are a necessary part to the entire structure. Turn the pages, and meet each part that makes St. Joe as great as it is. They're great people, making St. Joe great!!!

Through an excellent academic program and also a well bred bunch of people contributing to the system, St. Joseph's High School is just ONE STEP CLOSER to knowledge ...

Joey: 1963-1980

Someone endlessly special to us all
Has left us and gone away.
No more pain, no more struggle
Joey is with God today.

Someone as good inside as Joe
Didn't deserve the pain he endured.
The good Lord mercifully realized this
And in His way, Joey has been cured.

Joe gave us so much happiness
Always a bright smile.
Until we join him when true life begins
He'll be happy with God all the while.

We all are more fulfilled
From having Joe around.
Aside from our tears, let's smile for him
For the eternal life he's found.

Joey didn't deserve the pain
He's had for the past few years.
The Lord saw, and took Joey away
From all the pain and the tears.

From his happy home with us
To his happier home where he'll stay
We'll miss Joey, but have faith in God
Until we're with them both someday.
-Frank Leyes-

We, the students of St. Joseph's High School offer our prayers and fond memories of Joe Wilhelm, our classmate and friend. Losing friends, especially at this time in our lives is by no means an easy thing to cope with. But knowing that Joe is with God, and happy today must make up for some of the pain coming from his being gone. May the memory of Joseph Wilhelm be with us all forever, and serve as an example of loving life for us all . . .

With the opening of the 1980-1981 school year at St. Joe came many changes -some more noticeable than others. The most noticed, however, was the appearance of our new principal, Mr. Glenn Rousey. Mr. Rousey came to St. Joe from California, and brought with him many fresh, new ideas that have created in St. Joe a new image and outlook. Mr. Rousey has kept an open line of contact with parents and students at St. Joe by offering his thoughts and comments whenever asked to do so. By being so open and honest, the students feel free to come to him with any problem they feel has arisen. Also new to the staff is R. Marian Kenney, serving as vice-principal.

Good luck in your new positions, Sr. Marian and Mr. Rousey, and welcome to the St. Joe community!!!

One of Mr. Rousey's new assignments as principal, and perhaps one he enjoys most, is being able to have his support to the students at the honors night. Here, congratulating senior Martha Howard.

Being principal involves a lot of thought, consideration, and hard work, which Mr. Rousey does give.

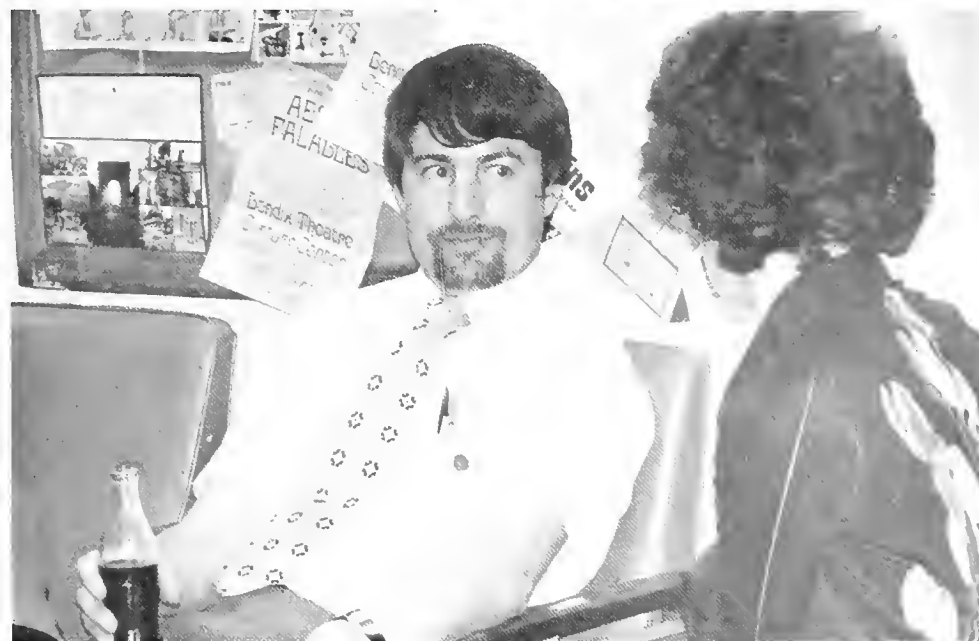

His office has become his "home away from home," and his latest family portrait is of his Indianettes, the girls basketball team, now joining his other team pictures throughout his office.

Sr. Mary Ann Pajakowski is overwhelmed with the serenading given to her on her birthday.

Mr. Wojtowicz, registrar, is also teaching analysis this year. At times, the two jobs don't seem to mix.

For Mr. Bowman, Dean of students, a Coke and a relaxing conversation help him through a hectic day.

ORGANIZATIONS:

LIFE

Most likely the first thing that comes to mind when the word school is mentioned is homework, or something to do with academics. However, although academics are major in any learning institution, there do exist other characteristics. One of these characteristics is that of a school's organizations or clubs. An organization gives the students an opportunity to get involved with a topic other than academic by definition, that they are interested in knowing about.

St. Joe offers over 30 organizations to participate in, all which attempt to provide the students taking part in the club a deeper understanding of the topic at hand, while also proving to hold a lot of fun and excitement. Above all, the clubs at St. Joe create friendships, bringing people with a common interest together to enjoy that interest. Although many students don't realize it, organizations are a big part of high school life.

Organizations prepare students for their future, while providing fun in the present, and here at St. Joe, organizations make us just ONE STEP CLOSER to life ...

Student Government

This year's student government aided Mr. Rousey and the faculty in keeping all aspects of St. Joe running smoothly. Headed by president Doug Regan, this group organized various student activities, including the Corn Roast, and helped with orientaiton and registration.

Some major events discussed at various mettings were the condition of the cafe, the purchasing of a new flag for the school, prom arrangements, and a new policy for the breakup of class offices. All of these policies were brought into effect this year or will be so next year.

Officers of Student Government this year were: Doug Regan, President; Jay Lewis, Dir. of Government; Kay Healy, Treasurer; Mary Emanoil, Dir. of Information; Tom Bauters, Dir. of Athletics; Dan Murphy, Dir of Spirit; Anne Noetzel, Sue Mullen, Kate Murphy, and Jen Haley, Class Social Life directors.

Mary Emanoil, Director of Information, Dan Murphy, Director of Spirit, Tom Bauters, Director of

Jay Lewis, Director of Government, and Kay Healy, Treasurer, helped to keep the goings on of student government running well.

In the process of pumping creative juices into his body in order to help run the school more efficiently is Doug Regan.

Liturgy Planning, Retreat Committee, Hunger Abolition Corps

This year's Hunger Abolition Corps was headed by Mr. Tom Hampson, and President Stacy Kalamaros. The big activities included the annual Thanksgiving food drive, which as usual was a huge success, and for the first time, a carwash to benefit La Cassa.

The liturgy planning committee worked together this year to plan all the school masses. They arranged a mass to be said by Bishop William McManus earlier in the year, and in March, Bishop Joseph Crowley came to help us celebrate our feast day.

During its first year at St. Joe, the retreat committee made it possible for the students to break away from the everyday routine of classes, and spend time with one another and themselves, on a retreat.

Row 2: Shelly Kodba, Sevim Kilic, Brigit Tweedell, Ann Crumlish, Fran Ashton, Mrs. Hendricks.

As has been the custom in the past, the Fine Arts Club, Monogram Club and Speech Team have maintained high student interest and accomplished a great deal in the past year. The Fine Arts Club, which is moderated by Mrs. Hendricks, went on a trip to see the Art Institute at Chicago this fall and also worked on the background sets for the school play. The Monogram Club, an organization for varsity letter earners, was moderated by Mr. O'Neil. The Speech Team, which is moderated by Mrs. Scherer, attended six meets and the sectionals. The team placed at the Penn meet with Jan Zbieranski placing fifth in the discussion competition and Mike Butler placing sixth in the poetry competition. The team also placed at the Concord meet.

Spanish Club, German Club, French Club

The language clubs here at St. Joe are for those who want to go a step further in their studies of a language. The French club, with moderator Mrs. Doering and president Beth Bodnar, had an exciting year. They saw a performance by French folk singers at the Century Center and had a French Mass later in the year. The German club, under the direction of Mrs. Bomer, started off the year with their own celebration of Oktoberfest, and later they had a Christmas party with the traditional German customs. The Spanish club, with Mrs. Nava as their moderator, treated themselves several times to dinner at La Hacienda restaurant.

lie Stephenson, Karen Plaweski, Maria Gra braek, Jill Bradley. Row 3: Dan Murphy, Mike Agostino.

Spirit Club, Future Secretaries Association, and Drama Club illustrate a few of the organizations which promote various interests of the St. Joe students. This year, Spirit Club coordinated a number of pep rallies, including a bonfire before the homecoming game. Their successful pom-pom sale also encouraged spirit throughout the entire school. Likewise, the FSA had a busy year in which the girls prepared for their prospective careers by attending a number of secretarial workshops. Drama Club was also very productive this year. Profits from the fall play were used to purchase new lights for the St. Joe little theater. Drama club also performed here at St. Joe on English Excellence Day as well as at a number of local grade schools.

The first year for the backpacking club was a trip back to nature. The club is moderated by Brother Chris Dreyer and Mr. Tom Hampson. The organization proved to be fun with a weekend trip to Potatoe Creek.

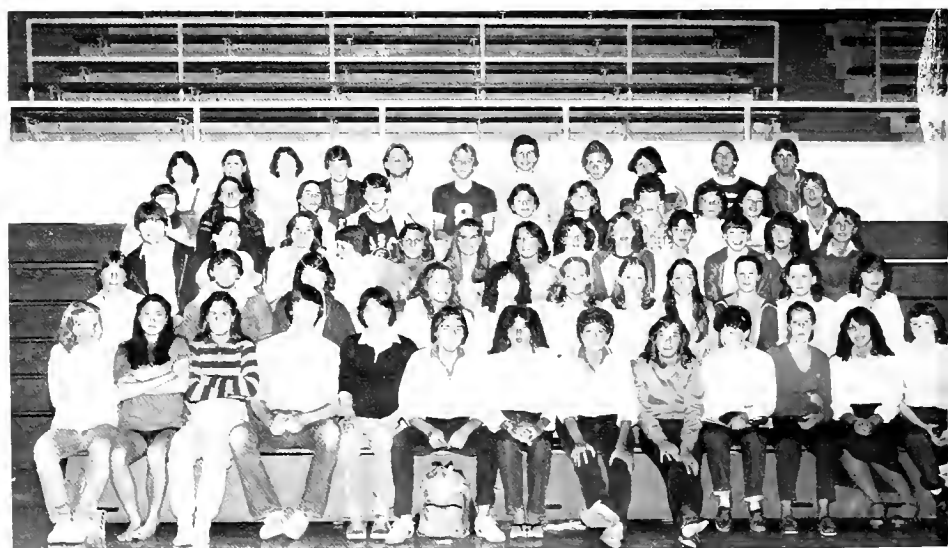

The ski club this year went to Indian Head for a ski weekend. The club, moderated by Mr. Mark Meyers and Mr. Mark Ghyselink, and presidents Kay Healy, Donna Bhisitkul, and Cathy Houk, had a short season this year due to lack of snow.

The chess club, moderated by Brother Robert, took sixth place out of sixteen teams in the Indiana Regional Tournament. The tournament was held March 28 at Concord High school in Elkhart. The club is still going strong after many years at St. Joe.

Ski Club: row 1-Meredith Healy, Donna Bhisitkul, Kay Healy, Mike Kennedy, John Bhisitkul, Mike Hill, Maria Kronstein, Jennifer Sassano, Renee Joubert, Mary Emanoil, Julie Conboy, Kathy Yorio, Chris O'Malley, row 2-Ted Kommers, Jeff Petersen, Pam Gottlick, Sue Leader, Janice Gray, Marion Towle, Shelly Biek, Anne Kulesa, Jane Seitz, Lora Gottlick, Brenda Veldman, row 3-Rich McLaughlin, Angel Pimpinella, Jean Kubsch, Kelly Cooper, Julie Sergio, Terri Austin, Ann Leader, Amy Gottlick, Megan Schmidt, Beth Houle, Cathy Egan, Debbi Lubelski, Susie Karwowski, row 4-Andrea Dobranski, Kenny Cyr, Tom Seitz, Mike Trubac, Caela Dargis, Dan McKeawn, Kate Murphy, Tricia Kennelly, Dave Petsche, Todd Wilson, Mark Laroche, George Carlin, Lisa Sweet, Rich Linczar, Bill Corbett.

"NHS and Hi-Lite"

The National Honor Society underwent some changes for 1981. With a new moderator, Mrs. Mary Lou Derwent, the NHS became more active at St. Joe. Members tutored other students and also worked in the library by assisting the librarian. They also organized Career Day '81. The induction ceremony for the juniors that was previously held on Honors Night was given its own night. Also, more juniors were inducted in the spring than in previous years. Thirty-eight juniors were inducted in May. With the thirty-two seniors, the Josephite chapter of the National Honor Society has grown to 70 members.

The school newspaper staff continued to produce the monthly paper, the Hi-Lite. The staff reported on different human interest stories as well as informative pieces about the St. Joe community. Led by Editor-In-Chief Martha Howard, the Hi-Lite had the honor of having many of its articles printed in the Next Generation Page in the South Bend Tribune. With the talent of the Hi-Lite staffers, students at St. Joe remained well-informed of the activities occurring at St. Joe.

We truly hope you have enjoyed your 1980-1981 edition of HI-WAY. If you have, all our hours and hours of endless hard work have been well worth it. It's been rough along the road, but finally we've made it. We've made it through the deadlines, burning the midnight (or the 4:00 am!!) oil, made it through lost pages, and through pages we thought would never come together. But alas — it's here. Do us just one favor, please, for all our work and worry: enjoy your HI-WAY, and keep it forever. It is your only record of the year gone past.

sincerely,
Kathy Faccenda
Kim Bauer

P.S. A BIG thanks to our staff!!! Tim Pingel, Marion Towle, Meg Hill, Peggy Faccenda, Mary Kenney, Maria Airo, Mary Kay O'Connell, Mary O'Malley, Fran Sullivan, Mike Trubac, Jim Reiner, Theresa Rogalski, and Tom Kuhar.

"Ken"

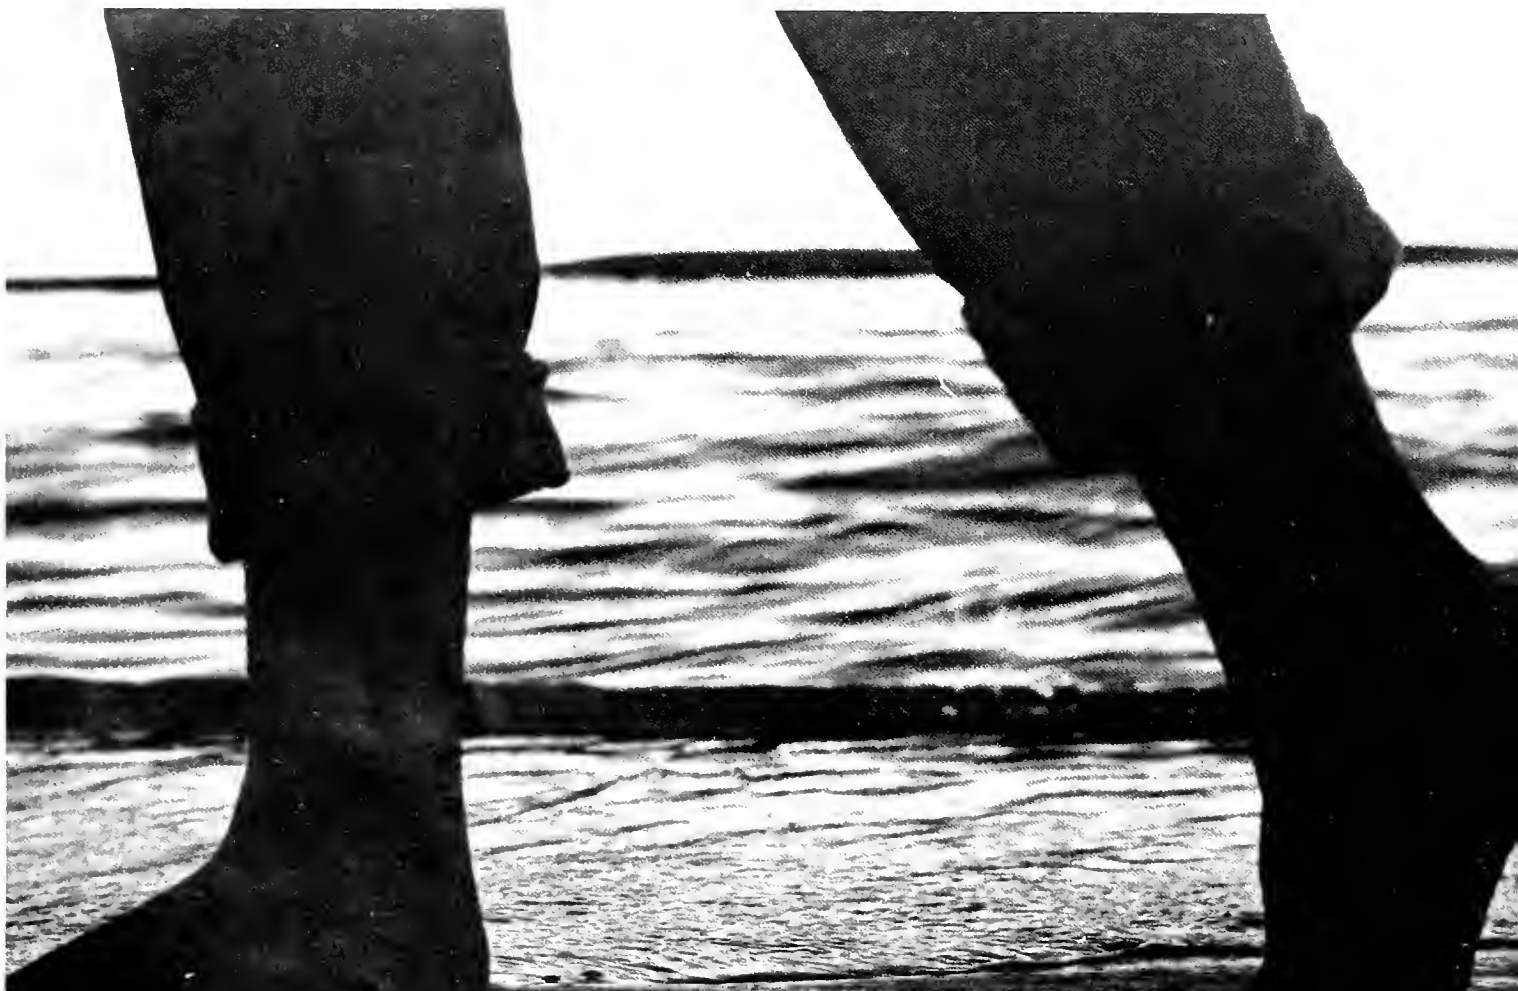

One month and a half after graduation, the Class of '81 was again stricken with tragedy. Ken McGlinn, a member of the class, was killed in an auto accident. Adding to the tragedy were the injuries of Greg Wilken and Kevin McCray, of the Class of '81, and Paul Rodes, of the Class of '80.

Ken's death affected everyone very much because he was so special to all who knew him. His teammates, friends, and family will forever love Ken for everything he did, and they will treasure the loving and kind memories they share of him. Ken remains in the thoughts and prayers of those who were given the chance to know him and share their time with him. This page is dedicated in fond memory of all the time and love that Ken gave from all those who return that love to him.

of this, the 1980-1981 school year, have all come ONE STEP CLOSER to the completion of the cycle of our lives here on earth ...

Footprints ...

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it, "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "my precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Well, another year is coming to an end and this one has been especially great because of you. You are a special gift to me because you have come, you are original like me, you put up with my messes - I think you had a sister who didn't know when to come in, you have problems with your computer projects, you play putt-putt more than myself.
You don't know what's going on in our relationship, you space out, but mostly you are a good friend to many and one person in particular,

you are a great friend to me & I shall be glad to know you are also special because you have been that nobody knows what I had done, it is a secret want to be a librarian, I don't like reading foreign books, but also that you are a very other who is serious about you

Rose Anne,

To a great kid
and a great person to sit next to. Hope you have fun in JAZZ band and have a great summer.
Keep looking cute.

Love,
Joey

At the end of the year, I leave you with a question and a statement.
"What have you been writing, is it?"
Brendan
Roland Thomas

Rose Anne,

We sure had our share of laughs last year (especially in Algeria?)
(joke!!). I hope these keep up, especially into next year (when we'll need 'em?!!). Have a terrific summer, Rosie!

Love,
Laure

Hey Rosie,
This ~~was~~ sure was a great year for few Tejanoes. I've made learned a lot, mostly how to create
chwell rules
subic summer
D. H. H. H. H. H.

Rose Anne,
Well, what can I say besides Biology has really been fun. Don't ever forget the funny times we've had ("distribution of hair") HA HA HA

Have a super summer
& I'll see you later.
Julie
Keep Smilin' ☺

I don't know what to write.
